

RULES AND CONSTITUTION OF THE ACTIVE BUSINESS GROUP

1 Name

The club or group is called the Active Business Group (hereinafter referred to as the “Group”)

2 Objects

The object of the Group is to promote and provide the opportunity for marketing by members on behalf of all members of the Group.

3 Qualification for Membership

Anyone that is not less than eighteen years of age and the business in which they are involved and wish to promote must not conflict with an existing member’s employment and business. In the event that the member is not a sole trader or practitioner the membership is vested in the name of the business or company.

4 Constitution

The members of the Group are the signatories to these rules.

5 Equal Opportunities

It is the policy of the Group that all decisions are based on Merit and the legitimate business needs of the organisation. The members of the Group do not discriminate on the basis of race, colour or nationality, ethnic or national origins, sex, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, marital or civil partner status, disability, religion or belief or any other ground on which it or becomes unlawful to discriminate under the laws in England and Wales and will comply with the terms of the Groups equal Opportunities policy which is set out in Appendix 1 attached.

6 Membership Restriction

Members must represent a business discipline that is their business or represent a substantial part of their business activities and no other member may represent the same business discipline. In the event of a question of conflict between the business activities of existing members or an existing member and prospective member the conflict shall be referred in writing to the membership committee. The decision of the membership committee as to who should represent that business activity shall be final.

7 Application for Membership

Every candidate wishing to join must either complete the approved application form and submit this to the membership secretary or complete the online application available on the Group's web site.

8 Admission to Membership as a Member

8.1 Upon receipt of an application for membership the membership secretary shall

- (a) Notify all members of the application who may within seven days of notification submit written objections to the application to the membership secretary.
- (b) Notify and call a meeting of the membership committee to take place within eight to fourteen days of receipt of the application and to notify the committee members of any written objections received.

8.2 A candidate who receives the votes of the majority of the membership committee must be declared elected.

9 After Admission to Membership

9.1 Immediately after an applicant has been admitted as a member he or she must

9.1.1 Be given notice of his or her election

9.1.2 Be furnished with a copy of these rules if requested (a copy will be posted on the Active Business Group web site)

9.1.3 Be requested to remit to the banker or treasurer of the Group

9.1.3.1 His or her entrance joining fee

9.1.3.2 His or her first subscription

9.2 On payment of his entrance fee and first subscription an elected candidate becomes a member of the Group for a period of 12 months and is entitled to all benefits and privileges of membership and agrees to be bound by these rules.

10 Delay in Taking up Membership

If a person is granted membership and the entrance fee and subscription are not paid within one month from the date of the request to them, the admission of that member becomes void unless he satisfies the committee that the delay in payment was due from an absence from the United Kingdom or other sufficient cause.

11 Membership Fees and Subscription Payments

11.1 The membership fee shall be agreed by the majority of members attending at the annual general meeting each year or at a special general meeting

11.2 The annual subscription will be decided upon from time to time at the annual general meeting and will be for the period 12 months commencing 1st June each year.

11.3 All joining fees and subscriptions paid by cheque must be payable to Active Business Group and crossed a/c payee. All members paying their subscription by bank transfer must ensure they put the relevant reference number on their payment.

11.4 Upon joining all new members will pay their subscription at the rate then current for one year. Following this, they will pay their subscription at the rate then current for the next twelve months or if the Treasurer shall decide all subscriptions shall be renewable on the same date apportioned from the first or a subsequent anniversary of their joining the ABG until the following 1st June whereafter the subscriptions will be paid annually for the period from 1st June.

11.5 All new members joining will pay the costs of the weekly breakfast by monthly standing order to the Active Business Group.

11.6 If required all entrance fees and subscriptions must be paid by banker's standing order.

12 Subscriptions in Arrear

12.1 If any member fails to pay his annual subscription within fourteen days after it becomes due, notice must be sent to him calling his attention to the failure to pay.

12.2 If the member does not pay the amount within fourteen days from posting that notice the committee may terminate his membership.

12.3 If at any time the member gives the committee a satisfactory explanation he may, in the discretion of the membership committee and upon payment of arrears, be re-admitted to membership without payment of any entrance fee.

13 Resignation of Members

Any member may resign his membership by giving notice in writing to that effect to the Chairman.

14 Members Adjudged Bankrupt

14.1 If any member is convicted on indictment of any criminal offence or

14.2 is adjudged a bankrupt or

- 14.4 Has a trustee appointed for the benefit of his creditors or
- 14.5 Is no longer looking after his affairs
- 14.6 He immediately ceases to be a member of the Group but the membership committee may in its discretion reinstate him without entrance fee.

15 Expulsion and Suspension of Members

- 15.1 If at any time the Membership committee considers that the interests of the club require it they must invite a member to withdraw from the club by letter specifying the time before which the withdrawal should be made.
- 15.2 If the member concerned does not withdraw, the membership committee must submit the question of his expulsion to a special general meeting to be held within six weeks after the date of the letter.
- 15.3 Not less than four weeks notice of the meeting must be given to members.
- 15.4 The secretary must inform the member in question of the time and place of the meeting and the nature of the complaint against him in sufficient time to afford him a proper opportunity of offering his explanation.
- 15.5 The member will be suspended and shall not be entitled to attend meetings or events held by the Group until the final determination of whether membership will be terminated or continue.
- 15.6 At the meeting the member must be allowed to offer an explanation of his conduct verbally or in writing and if after that two thirds of the members present vote for his expulsion he will immediately cease to be a member of the Group.
- 15.7 The voting at any special general meeting must be by ballot.

15.8 The Membership committee may at its absolute discretion remove any member from the Group's web site pending the outcome of any investigation that might take place into that member's business by the Group or any third party

16 Effect of Ceasing to be a Member of the Group

On ceasing to be a member of the Group there is no refund of subscriptions and a person forfeits all right to claim upon the Group and its funds.

16 Officers and Trustees

16.1 The chairman, vice chairmen, Group secretary, treasurer and membership secretary must be elected by the members at the Annual General Meeting and unless there is a death or resignation or the member is removed from office by a resolution of the members.

16.2 Any member seeking election as an officer should put in writing to the secretary the office for which he is standing prior to the commencement of the AGM or bi-annual meeting and should be proposed and seconded by current members.

16.3 A member may not hold the same post for more than 18 months but this shall not include the posts of Treasurer, Secretary or Membership Officer.
